GCPRA MEMBERS,

The GCPRA board of Directors has made the extremely difficult decision to cancel the 2020 GCPRA Finals. This was not an easy decision, and it is one that was looked at long and hard from many angles, however, it is the decision that needed to be made to preserve the financial state of the association.

We are looking forward to finishing the 2020 year out strong with the final 4 rodeos, and we will be using the Gilbert Days Rodeo as the final rodeo of the 2020 season, instead of it being the first rodeo of the 2021 season.

Although we will not be having a GCPRA Finals Rodeo, the GCPRA would still like to honor the year end winners in each event. We will be awarding prizes to the Year End Champions, with possibility of going farther down the placings as well, (this is something we are still striving to accomplish). Please remember that for this year only, we have waived the rodeo count; this means that any member with enough money won is eligible for year end prizes.

As always, we appreciate all your continued support and even though this year had been rough, we hope to come back better than ever in 2021.

Please stay safe,

G.C.P.R.A. Board of Directors
